Foundation for Tulsa Schools is excited to announce its partnership with Our Blood Institute and Donable® Cares to support programs for students and educators at Tulsa Public Schools and address the ongoing blood shortage. Donable® Cares, the nonprofit side of Donable®, the app that pays people to recruit blood donors, is at the heart of this effort. By donating blood through Donable® Cares, donors will be helping raise money for Tulsa Public Schools

Here's how it works: for every blood donation made through Foundation for Tulsa Schools's link, Donable® Cares will donate $15 to the organization or $100 for every first-time blood donor. It's a simple way to make double the impact! Donors will be saving lives while also supporting programs for students and educators with all monetary donations going directly to the Foundation for Tulsa Schools. Foundation for Tulsa Schools is a nonprofit focused on [insert cause]. Currently, the number of blood donors is far too low to meet the demand from local hospitals. Blood donations are vital—about 25% of the blood supply is used to support cancer patients alone. Not to mention the thousands of other patients who require blood transfusions for their treatments.
